Buckingham Palace
Charles E. Flower

LL8684

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE — POSTKARTE

By Appointment.

Buckingham Palace stands at the end of the beautiful processional avenue known as the Mall. The Palace, the London residence of the Sovereign, is a massive and imposing building of quadrangular shape, erected on the site of old Buckingham House, which was built in 1703, and rebuilt and enlarged by Nash in 1825-7.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

"LONDON." "OILETTE" Postcard 7940.
Raphael Tuck & Sons' ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.

Printed in England

Buckingham Palace
Charles E. Flower

went to Buckingham Palace on my return to London. It is only a short walk from St Ermins.

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE POSTKARTE

TRADE MARK

By Appointment.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

Buckingham Palace stands at the end of the beautiful processional avenue known as the Mall. The Palace, the London residence of the Sovereign, is a massive and imposing building of quadrangular shape, erected on the site of old Buckingham House, which was built in 1703, and rebuilt and enlarged by Nash in 1825-7.

The large gates are never opened except to royalty. The king and queen usually leave by the gate which I have marked. In front of the palace is a magnificent statue of Queen Victoria. It represents her sitting. It is very large and carved from pure white marble. I sat on the base of the monument which is like this. It is magnificent and faces a fine drive. There is a park on one

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" Postcard 7940. "LONDON."
ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.

Printed in England

LL8684